

2022 AGM Fun Shoot Raffle Prizes

Here are few of the awesome handcrafted items donated by generous ATBA members that will be raffled off at the upcoming AGM and Fun Shoot, May 20th - 23rd Eckville, AB.

This right-handed side quiver was handmade in Rocky Mountain house and donated by Anthony Taylor. Value $150

Rudi Hartmann and his wife Heidi are long-time members of the ATBA. Rudi has donated knives in the past and here is another example of the excellent work he does. Value $275

Don Aellen has been a member since the ATBA was founded. If any of you have had the chance to examine the brain-tanned smoked hide Don produces, then you know this is a grade-A superior product. We are thrilled to be able to offer this unique item for raffle. Value $1700

De'la Bakko and her husband Eric have been around the traditional archery scene for a very long time. Those who know De'la, know that her sculptures and paintings are second to none. We are extremely pleased, and honored, to offer this original 16x20 painting. Value $725
